

Welcome to the Fall 2008 Semester.

We hope you enjoyed your summer and are ready to work.

Joe Paquet is back teaching this fall. He teaches on Thursdays only. He is offering a combined outdoor and studio painting class, a figure class and a Studio Painting class in the evenings.

Jeff Hurinenko teaches on Wednesday only and will be offering the Dutch/Flemish Still Life class in the morning and afternoon. He will be bringing back the Portrait Class next spring.

Enrollment is limited, so do not hesitate too long to register as classes will fill quickly. Registration forms must be completed in full and accompanied by a check to reserve your position in class.

Please make all checks made out to: Hurinenko & Paquet Studio. (If taking classes from both teachers, kindly make out separate checks (still made out to Hurinenko & Paquet Studio) with the classes and/or the workshop indicated in the memo).

Class Descriptions

1&2 Flemish/Dutch Still Life Painting

Study the techniques which made it possible for the Dutch and Flemish masters to elevate common-place objects into great works of art. The delicate balance between value and color, luminosity and atmosphere will be emphasized through the use of controlled underpaintings and subtle glazing techniques.

Wednesdays 9:00am-Noon & 1:00-4:00

Instructor: Jeff Hurinenko

4 Outdoor Painting (first class will meet at studio) *(First 6 Weeks of class)

Dealing with the myriad of effects nature presents can be daunting. This course will help you make sense of the layered information nature offers and help you organize an effect of light in a timely, practical way. *Humility and a healthy respect for nature required.

Studio Painting

*(Remaining 5 Weeks)

Take your work to another level. This portion will focus on crafting studio works from studies or photos. Understand what makes a fully-rounded conception of a painting. Emphasis will be placed on practical pictorial construction and memory training.

Thursdays 9:00-Noon

Instructor: Joseph Paquet

5 Figure Drawing

Getting to the essence and character is a vital starting point for any work of art. Speed with accuracy will be stressed. Focus will be on making good decisions, quickly, to capture the spirit of the figure.

Thursdays 1:00-4:00 pm

Instructor: Joseph Paquet

6 Studio Painting

Take your work to another level. This course will focus on crafting studio works from studies or photos. Understand what makes a fully-rounded conception of a painting. Emphasis will be placed on practical pictorial construction and memory training.

Thursdays 6:00-9:00 pm (evenings)

Instructor: Joseph Paquet
