

Welcome to the Spring 2012 Semester,

We hope you enjoyed your Holiday season.

Similar to last semester, Joseph Paquet will not be teaching day classes. The Figure Drawing class will be Wednesday evenings. The Thursday night Studio Painting class will continue as it always has.

Jeff Hurinenko will be teaching Open Studio Painting Wednesday afternoon. Students will be able to choose between a still life from nature, a portrait you are currently working on, or copying a masterpiece from start to finish. Wednesday mornings will be reserved for Individual Critiques – please reference class descriptions for the cost of critiques.

Enrollment is limited, so do not hesitate to register as classes fill quickly. Registration forms must be completed in full and accompanied by a check to reserve your position in class.

Please make all checks made out to: Hurinenko & Paquet Studio. If taking classes from Jeff Hurinenko and Joe Paquet, kindly make out separate checks (still made out to Hurinenko & Paquet Studio) with the class number indicated in the memo.

See you at the easel,

Class Descriptions

1 Individual Critiques

It is very beneficial to have concentrated attention. These critiques are set up to purely be - one on one – (non-painting) sessions. We will sit down together with one or multiple pieces, and the critique will be constructed from what has been done to where you can go with your approach. We will then set up specific challenges to push you towards your goals. Appointments will be on a first come / first serve basis, one week prior to our meeting. Cost: $60/ Half-Hour, $100/ Hour

Wednesdays 9:00-Noon

Instructor: Jeff Hurinenko

2 Open Studio Painting

This will a class where the student can choose what subject matter they wish to create from. Still life from nature, a portrait you are currently working on, or copying a masterpiece from start to finish. We will be able to touch on the different techniques the masters used to create their masterpieces, class and individual discussions will thus encompass both Direct and Indirect painting techniques.

Wednesday 1:00-4:00

Instructor: Jeff Hurinenko

3 Figure Drawing

Getting to the essence and character is a vital starting point for any work of art. Speed with accuracy will be stressed. Focus will be on making good decisions, quickly, to capture the spirit of the figure.

4 Studio Painting

Take your work to another level. This course will focus on crafting studio works from studies or photos. Understand what makes a fully-rounded conception of a painting. Emphasis will be placed on practical pictorial construction and memory training.
